Western Powers Receive Yugoslav
Protest Stating Trieste Proposal
Won't Strengthen Peace of Europe

LONDON—The Yugoslav Government protested to the western powers today that their Trieste proposal will not strengthen the peace of central Europe. Tanjuš, official Yugoslav news agency, said a note had been presented to United States, British and French ambassadors in Belgrade by the Yugoslav foreign minister, Stanoje Simic.

Premier Tito's government made a pointed note the proposal to restore Trieste to Italy came only four weeks before the Italian elections. It declared: "The Yugoslav Government considers that submitting such a proposal at the time of the pre-electoral campaign in Italy can serve only to foment chauvinist hatred."

UNITED STATES OF EUROPE

ROME—Premier Alcide de Gasperi said today he sees a step towards a united states of Europe in a proposal of three western powers to return Trieste to its country. But from the Communist states there was a chorus of protests, fearing the Trieste pronouncement would influence Italy's April 18 elections, in which the Communists are bidding for power.

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, who announced the plan Saturday and conferred three hours today with de Gasperi, declared: "Peace is possible. I think that peace is probable and I think if we do what we should, peace is certain."

Moscow radio lashed out at the western powers, charging United States, Britain and France were acting behind the back of the Soviet Union in proposing to revise the peace treaty with Italy.

JEWS EXPLODE TRUCK ON ARABS

JERUSALEM—An explosion wrecked the thickly populated Iraq street centre in the Arab section of Haifa today. Government spokesmen said there were "very many casualties." Police said a Jewish truck loaded with explosives penetrated the Arab section and was blown up. Witnesses said buildings and houses were damaged "for blocks around." Many Arabs were believed buried in the wreckage.

RISE IN COSTS WEAKEN FAMILY LIFE

OTTAWA—Insecurity, depression and worry are the substance of the report of the family welfare division, Canadian Welfare Council, issued today on the results of Canada's rising cost of living. "The battle of the dollar is weakening family life in this country," said Miss K. M. Jackson, secretary of the division, in announcing the findings of the survey the council had taken on present-day living conditions in Canada. "Reports indicate not only families are having a hard time to make ends meet, but insecurity, fear, depression and general worry are increasing family tensions," she said.

WALKOUT CAUSED PANIC SAYS TASS

MOSCOW—The departure of the Russian representatives in Saturday's Allied Control Council meeting in Berlin caused "unusual consternation and complete confusion" among the western representatives, said Tass in a dispatch published today in the Communist Party newspaper Pravda. The Russian delegation left the meeting "because British and American representatives refused to give an accounting before the control council of the relative questions in the London conference."

AMERICANS WILL STAY IN BERLIN

BERLIN—Despite Russia's boycott of the four-power government machinery in Germany, General Lucius Clay, United States occupation commander, said today the Americans intend to stay in Berlin. "We are in Berlin by agreement, just as the Russians are in Saxony and Thuringia (territory conquered by allied troops) by agreement," said Clay. "We intend to stay," he declared.

The Russians' boycott, which followed their walkout on the meeting of the Allied Control Council Saturday, spread paralysis today through the whole control authority.

TORNADO PLANE DAMAGE $15,000,000

OKLAHOMA—The tornado which took 100 airplanes as it flew over and tossed them about at the Tinker Air Force Base Saturday night, caused damage officially estimated at $15,000,000 to aircraft alone. Two soldiers and four civilians were injured, none seriously, by flying glass. Several buildings were levelled in the 100-mile-an-hour wind.

FEAR 8 LOST IN PACIFIC SPRING GALE

SEATTLE—Eight persons are feared dead and property damage is expected to climb into the hundreds of thousands of dollars today as the Pacific Northwest recovered from Sunday's spring gale. The eight possible victims were occupants of an air force C-47 plane which vanished en route to Portland from California. It was last reported 25 miles north of Portland. The storm, too, took a toll at sea, with the loss of a 52-foot luxury cruiser and several barges.

"ROYAL BLESSED EVENT IN OCTOBER"

LONDON—The People, a London Sunday paper, said in a week-end edition, Princess Elizabeth is expecting a baby in October. The story drew no official comment from Buckingham Palace sources. The paper said an official announcement concerning the princess' public dates was "expected at any time in the next few weeks."

REPORT CONVICTS STAB GUARDS

KINGSTON—The Kingston Whig-Standard says in a newspaper story today two guards were attacked and stabbed by convicts in the Kingston Penitentiary Saturday. The paper said penitentiary officials declined to comment on the report. One guard was said to have received a stab wound near the heart. Other guards came to the assistance of the two men and subdued the convicts who are reported now to be in solitary confinement.

SENATORS WANT COLD WAR DATA

WASHINGTON—Senators called today on Truman's administration for the secret data of the cold war with Communism. VANCOUVER—Permanent exclusion from the United States ordered by United States immigration officials for three British Columbia labor leaders, was announced Sunday by one of the men affected, Ernest Dalskog, B.C. president of the International Woodworkers of America (IWOA). He had been advised by his Washington attorney the action had been confirmed by the United States Attorney-General, Tom Clarke. Dalskog, and IWOA officials Bert Melness and John McGuish, were refused entry in August of last year to attend a union convention in Seattle.

Total of $7,500 So Far Collected—Returns Not Complete

There is every indication the local Red Cross drive will go over the top today, as a total of $7,500 has been turned into the Bank of Nova Scotia.

In view of the fact that some canvassers have not completed their calls, it is anticipated the $8,000 quota will be reached within a few days. A group of women who canvassed the business area, exceeded their quota by more than 100 per cent, collecting over $2,000 from the business houses.

Due to the bad condition of the roads, many residents on Westside, and these people are requested to mail their donations to the Bank of Nova Scotia.

WHIZZER-BIKE
IS IMPOUNDED
UNDER NEW LAW

The new financial responsibility law caught up with a Whizzer-operated bicycle Thursday.

Police impounded the Whizzer, owned by Fred Heffke, 22, 808 Fuller Ave., and a light delivery truck owned by A. J. Bengert, 1318 Bertram, after both were involved in an accident at Bernard Ave. and Bertram St., shortly before 6 p.m. Thursday.

Heffke suffered bruises to the face and was treated in hospital before being released. The Whizzer was slightly damaged. Neither owner could produce the "pink slip" to show they carried public liability insurance as required by law.

These two vehicles are the third and fourth to be impounded since the law came into effect March 1.

BIKE LICENCE SCHEME UNDER CONSIDERATION

Police Chief Believes Licence Plan Would Help Curtail Theft of Bikes

NO RECORD

Acting-Mayor J. J. Ladd Says Scheme Under Consideration by City Council

A licensing scheme for bicycles is under consideration by City Fathers, following suggestions from Kelowna Police Chief R. B. McKay. Finance Chairman J. J. Ladd said this morning no "definite action" had been taken one way or the other. The suggestion has merit, he said, but it has disadvantages, too.

Ald. Ladd agreed that it would help considerably to reduce the incidence of bike thefts and aid in their recovery. It would not be a revenue producing scheme and to many it would be just a "nuisance tax," said the alderman.

"One big difficulty is that there are almost as many bikes owned by people living out of the city as there are in the city. To operate efficiently, you can't license one and not the other," the city official pointed out.

In an interview with a Courier reporter, Sgt. McKay said he is in favor of a licensing scheme and he had verbally conveyed his suggestion to City Fathers. At the same time he submitted data that he had collected, together with a sample licence plate from Trail. Sgt. McKay was on the Trail police force before taking over charge of the Kelowna detachment.

Thiefs "SHU" High
One of the main purposes of licensing would be to "eliminate bike thefts and facilitate their recovery." He described bicycle licensing as a "protection for the honest public."

Bicycle thefts are "still at a high level," he pointed out, and turning to the records, disclosed that thefts for this year numbered 67. All but nine of these have been recovered. Of the 67 bikes reported stolen, owners of 35 could not give the police the serial number, the only positive means of identification. Licensing would guard against this, the chief said, because the serial numbers of all bikes would be recorded at the licence office.

Six of the nine bicycles still unrecovered have no serial numbers listed on police records. Sgt. McKay said, as far as he knew, Vernon and Penticton had compulsory bicycle licensing. He admitted a scheme here would not be a "revenue" producing one. But enough money could be raised on licence fees to pay the costs of administration, he believed.

Judge J. R. Archibald Administers Oath of Office at Colorful Ceremony

IMPORTANT DAY

E. C. Weddell Warns New Citizens to Beware of "Swing To Far Left"

Another 20 new citizens were added to the growing number of Canadians at a special public ceremony at the Casorso Block, Tuesday morning. His Honor, County Court Judge J. R. Archibald, Kamloops, administered the oath of allegiance and handed citizenship papers to the new Canadians.

"Today is a most important day in your lifetimes," said E. C. Weddell, K.C. Kelowna, in giving the official address of welcome.

"You have each become not only a Canadian citizen, but a citizen of that great collection of free nations, the British Commonwealth, of which we are all so proud to belong, and I am sure that you are too, or you would not be here this morning."

Mr. Weddell warned them to beware of the great swing to the far left. "Our theory of government is that the individual comes first. We refuse to worship the state as such."

Right Men

He urged all to get on the voters' list as quickly as possible. "We cannot all run for office ourselves, but we can see to it that the men we do elect to office are men of character."

Kelowna High School Will Cost $500,000 and Rutland Building $400,000—Plans for Constructing 160,000 School on Westside Brought Back to City—Trustees Interview Minister of Education

May Be Ready By Fall

OVER $1,000,000 worth of school construction within a radius of ten miles of Kelowna, will get underway within the next month or six weeks. This was learned this morning following the return of a delegation of school trustees from Victoria, after a conference with the Minister of Education, W. T. Straith, at which time plans were approved for the construction of the Kelowna and Rutland high schools. The Kelowna school will cost in the neighborhood of $500,000, while the Rutland school will cost approximately $400,000. Plans of the new high school on the Westside were brought back to the city by the trustees, and they will be reviewed by the board this week before being returned to Victoria for final approval.

Cost of the school on the west side of the lake will be in the neighborhood of $160,000. It was pointed out that the school buildings alone, and that equipment, etc., will be extra. The plans were drawn up by McCarter and Nairn, architects, and they were picked up by the local delegates before they proceeded to Victoria. Tenders for construction of the schools will be called within the next two weeks, and building may get underway around the end of April. It is hoped to have the schools completed in time for the fall term next September.

The four-man delegation was composed of Chairman G. C. Hume, Glenora representative on the board of trustees; Trustee A. R. Polard, Kelowna; Trustee George Day, Rutland; and E. W. Barton, school board secretary. It was pointed out that fifty per cent of the building costs are borne by the provincial government.

If the high schools are completed in time for the fall term, the additional accommodation will alleviate the school congestion. During the past year, class-rooms have been overcrowded, and teachers are handicapped.

It also was learned that the Graham Street Primary School will be completed within the next two weeks. Work on the construction of another primary school in the south end of the city is to get underway immediately. A. L. Patterson has the contract for building the two primary schools.

HIGH SALARIES

Warns Administration Not to Be Too Proud Over Recent By-election Victories

W. A. C. Bennett delivered a slashing attack on British Columbia's proposed three per cent sales tax, criticized the government for payment of $27,500 in salaries to the new Labor Relations Board, warned the administration not to be too proud of its recent by-election victories, and declared that "since John Hart left the government, there's a heart left in it."

All this was done within a matter of two hours, when the Coalition member for South Okanagan addressed the Legislature last Friday night, in what may be one of his last major speeches in the B.C. House.

Mr. Bennett is the Progressive-Conservative party nominee for the Yale federal by-election which will probably be held the latter part of the month.

Irrigation Districts Will Save Many Thousands
Under New Agreement

THE Association of B.C. Irrigation Districts will shortly be give a "new deal," as a result of an order-in-council that will be passed by the provincial government calling for the adoption of the Clement Report which will mean a saving to irrigation districts of about $150,000, according to A. W. Gray, who returned from Victoria last Saturday. Mr. Gray said the Black Mountain Irrigation District will be saved about 40 payments of $1,500 each, and the final date of redemption of the debt advanced from 1996 to 1967. The South East Kelowna Irrigation District, Vernon Irrigation District and Keremeos Districts will be saved relatively similar amounts, as will a number of other districts in a smaller degree.

The delegation, headed by Mr. Gray, who is president of the Association of B.C. Irrigation Districts, interviewed several cabinet ministers, and was given the assurance that Dean Clement's report would be fully implemented.

Thirty Payments

Dean Clement's report is to the effect that only 30 payments are to be called for, and payments not made between 1924 and 1937 will be set over to the end of the 30 year period without interest. These will be taken care of by additional token payments, until the individual district has completed the required 30 payments. The department of lands, to problem finalized.

EASTER-Feast of Feasts

(A Guest Editorial)

Easter is the royal feast of feasts. Without exception there is no other festival which has meant so much to mankind; no, not even Christmas with all its wonderful appeal. For Easter tells the story of Resurrection; of the triumph of the power of God over the power of evil. Against the Lord all the forces of the devil were marshalled and at first it seemed that evil had triumphed. Until the third day it seemed so and then, on that first Easter morning the overwhelming tide of God's love and power swept against the enemy and the Risen Lord stood triumphant, giving final assurance that righteousness cannot eventually be overcome and that death is not the end of all things but only a veil, a transition from life here to life in Paradise.

There would have been no Christian Church had Christ not risen from the dead on Easter Day, and we should have found ourselves in a plight which can be compared only to that of the peoples of the world who, today, acknowledge no God but look, instead, to dictators for their salvation.

Let society think seriously on this latter point. The laxness and indifference with which the Christian Gospel is treated in our day are effective weapons in the hands of those who would drive us into the fold of that grim shepherd with a godless ideology.

The nations of the West hope to rule the world with police forces. They will never be successful unless they are united in an active, vigorous Christian Faith; and that Faith is based upon the Resurrection.

Let the people at large take warning. The prophet can do no more than give that warning. The Church speaks with prophetic voice. Let the people hear while there is yet time.

The Value of Education

The people of British Columbia are convinced of the value of education. They do not have to be sold on the idea that education is one of the pillars of democratic society, that teachers occupy the chief role in the educational process by the very nature of their calling, or that the quality of the teaching personnel largely determines the quality of education offered in our schools. They know that imposing school buildings, the best of books and the finest equipment are but tools which are put to good advantage only when in the charge of competent teachers.

It is not quite so generally understood, however, that to get good schools and good education it is necessary to pay good salaries to teachers. No one expects to buy tenderloin steaks for the price of hamburger or good lumber for the price of poor lumber, neither should any person hope to get good teachers for the price of unskilled or semi-skilled labor.

It just can't be done. In the long run, perhaps not immediately, but over a period of years, the quality of education offered in our schools must and will depend on the money paid to the teachers.

In the past our schools have suffered and consequently our children have been denied the opportunities of a full education because of the fact that finances for education have depended largely upon the narrow and restricted base of property taxation. The provincial government thought it had cleared up this problem two years ago through the adoption of the Cameron Report but it is to the fore again with both the municipalities and the provincial government concerned over a 63% rise in education costs since 1945 and over the prospect of still further increases.

Inevitably teachers' salaries are tied in with the current controversy between municipalities and the provincial government over school costs. Instructional costs are a large part of any school board budget. To some extent increased teachers' salary rates are responsible for increased total educational costs. This, however, is not the major factor. A larger part of the increase, probably 30% of the total, is directly attributable to population growth. There are more children going to school; more buildings and more teachers have to be provided, therefore, total costs go up.

Another considerable part of the increase is due to higher prices generally. School boards have to pay more for everything they supply to the schools.

Teachers' salary rates have increased by 28% since 1945 but in the same period the cost of living has advanced 27% so that the net relative economic position of teachers is virtually unchanged.

Today there are 188 unqualified teachers employed in B.C. schools and another 250 who are in high schools without the educational background normally required. Elementary teachers especially continue to be inadequately trained for the responsibility of work in the classroom. But this situation will not be remedied until teachers' salaries are raised.

Not only must educational expenditures be maintained at their present level but also more money must be found for education. It is too important a service to be crippled by lack of funds.

TEA TORTURE

Up in the wonderful Cariboo country of British Columbia there is a place called simply "The Chasm," a vertical-walled canyon which opens into a valley and reaches a dead-end of sheer cliff at the other.

The old-timers in the region, who wear ten-gallon hats, spurs and other useless accessories loved by tourists, will tell you that many years ago the Indians would approach "The Chasm" from the open end in spread-out formation, beating the bushes and loudly "yah-hoo-ing."

This would drive the game up to the sheer wall of the cliff. The Indians would then slaughter the beasts and the squaws would pack the meat home and never have to worry about the high cost of living.

I pass along this legend because it is a good description of a tea party, which just happens to be our subject for today.

If you have ever been to a tea party, then you know how those animals felt, trapped against the face of "The Chasm." The only difference is simply that at a tea party there are no redskins around to put you out of your misery.

It happens I have been to several of these affairs lately in the line of duty. Ladies who have some announcement to make to the newspapers or who are to be interviewed by some journalist seem incapable of carrying on unless they have organized the meeting into a tea party forgetting completely that man was not made to balance a bit of crockery in his paw.

What happens to me at tea parties is as near to panic as a man can come. In the first place, I never know what to do during that awkward silence when the ladies are being served. It is during the lull that most men light a cigarette. And this is fatal.

There are never any ash trays at tea parties, with the result that I always find myself standing miserably with a cup of hot tea in one hand and a cigarette and sandwich in the other, and maybe by this time somebody has placed a slab of cake on my saucer and the general feeling is akin to bicycling across Niagara Falls on a piano wire.

If you can take a nervous eye off your cup long enough you'll find that the ladies are having a gay time, wolfing sandwiches and drinking tea. The men, on the other hand, just stand there wanly with their arms full and looking about helplessly for a place to deposit that smoldering end of cigarette.

The only time I ever got up enough nerve to try to actually drink some tea I burned my nose with my cigarette, dropped a spoon at the floor and an asparagus roll fell down inside my coat, thus displaying all the poise of a backward gorilla.

It seems to be my fate, like the creatures in "The Chasm," to be pressed up against dead-ends at tea parties. I somehow manage to start out in the middle of the room, feet bysied wide apart, but before I know it—whooosh! I've got my back to the wall and they're dosing in on me.

If you are ever looking for me at a tea party you could try prying around among the potted ferns. I will be back there some place.

Generally I am so busy concentrating on my balancing act and trying to surreptitiously douse my cigarette in my tea that I forget that veterans decide I am a dull character of monumental proportions and move away. A sand flea in the centre of the Sahara never felt lonelier than I do in a room full of people who find themselves cast up on a tea party desert island.

It's a swell time to simply drop everything on the floor, bow low from the waist, and start running.

V. E. ELLISON OF OYAMA, WINS HIGH AWARDS

OYAMA — The awards won by V. E. Ellison in the 30th Annual Provincial Stock Show at Kamloops made front page news last week. He was elected president of the B.C. Hereford Breeder's Association, succeeding L. W. Wood, of Armstrong, and he is also one of the directors. His single Hereford steer, 1,101 pounds or over, was awarded the championship in that class and the reserve grand championship. He also took 3rd in the 901 to 1,000 pound class.

Mr. Ellison recommended that an International Hereford Breeder's Association should be established and this met with instant response and was accepted by the B.C. Hereford Breeder's Association. He said that the difficulties which B.C. and other Canadian Hereford breeders were now having with the United States showed need for international agreements and regulations.

HUMAN INTEREST STORIES

By Douglas W. Smith
Public Relations Officer,
Canadian Legion H.Q.

Joe was never designated by nature to be a fighting fool. He was short, pale with watery looking eyes that blinked nervously behind shill-rimmed glasses. Joe didn't even have a fighting heart, but he did know that he wanted to do something to help out his country.

The medical officer at the recruiting station took one look at Joe when he peeled off, shook his head and said, "Sorry son, but you'll never make aircrew."

Somehow or other, Joe passed his physical for ground crew, and again one of the mysteries of the service is how he ever managed to wrangle his way overseas. But he did.

For three years Joe watched over the flying birds that came under his care. Never a night passed when the planes were winging their way over enemy country did Joe sleep a wink until his charges were safely back in their camouflaged hide-outs. Many did not return. Joe worried and worked all the harder to see that the planes were in tip top shape.

Dizzy Spells

His diligence did not go unnoticed and he was wearing the three hooks and a crown of a flight-sergeant, when dizzy spells and violent nose bleedings came all too frequently. Joe carried on and did not report his condition to the medical officer for fear he would be returned to Canada. However, overwork and strained conditions took their toll. His wan look and peaked face told a story of its own, and they gave him a medical check-up.

He was returned to Canada, given another going over, then discharged as medically unfit.

Less than a month after his discharge Joe collapsed and died from a cerebral haemorrhage.

Left behind to fight life's battles were his widow and two small children. The widow was also in poor health and with her children unable to obtain steady work. She applied for a pension and received a negative reply. Her husband's documents showed no record of complaining of this illness and his death

ALTERATION NOW UNDERWAY

Extensive alterations to the store interior and the outside of the apartment building at the Harvey Avenue-Richter St. corner have been started by owner Gil Mervyn. When work is completed the store will have self-serving features and the whole north- and west sides of the two-storey building will be stuccoed.

APPROVE EXPENDITURE

City Council Monday night approved the expenditure of $750 for a trailer which will be used to transport two tractors in the city where civic projects are being carried out. Alderman Jack Horn said this would be more economical than to have a tractor proceed to a section of the city under its own power.

could not be attributed to his service with the armed forces.

Destitute, she came in despair to the Legion. The machinery of the service bureau got cracking immediately. They wrote Joe's pals who had been mess mates with his overseas. Fortunately he had confided to a few intimates of his headaches and nose bleedings. Signed attestations were secured from these men and the case was re-opened by the Legion before the Pension Commission.

The result: a full hundred per cent pension for the widow for life.

"COME BACK IN FIVE YEARS"
That's what they said in Edmonton, nearly 1000 wilderness clattered in from Edmonton, nearly 1000 wilderness miles to the east. They were saying it two years later when the grain elevator rose and dockside lots brought $25,000 at auction... "Prince Rupert," the word went... "World port on the North Pacific."

So they waited. And the clouds hung low over Dixon Entrance. Gulls screamed above the halibut boats and back on the hillside, wide streets began to take form. Years passed... years of unused labor and slow patient growth. A storage plant here... a new school there. Then, suddenly they were coming... men in their thousands... supplies, shells, bombs for Osaka and Kobe.

Today the generals know Rupert. The legislators and the shippers know it too. Alaska eyes those great new docks and plans her future. Blinking at last in history's spotlight, strategic Prince Rupert can say with assurance... "come back in five years... and see."

Prince Rupert: British Columbia's most northerly settlement on salt water, it enjoys a moderate climate the year 'round. Northern terminus on the Pacific of Canadian National Railway and linked by Skeena Highway with the rest of Canada's road system. Served by three steamship services and air service from the south.

Helpful Hints And Tips For Gardeners

Spring begins when the sun starts north again. In the few weeks that remain before planting time, a careful plan should be made for your Freedom garden.

Ashes of wood, soft coal and hard coal are all valuable to loosen a heavy clay soil, but it is best to let soft coal ashes weather for a season, to get rid of toxic substances.

TAKE CARE IN PLANTING NEW SHRUBS

Careful Study Should be Given to Angle of Tree Before Planting

By CECIL SOLLY

Evergreens have a root structure that varies greatly from that of the other groups of plants. The roots are slow to grow and slower to re-establish themselves when moved. The three important planting and cultural "points" to be carefully watched are: (1) the right kind of hole; (2) correct planting; (3) water.

There are two important facts that must be remembered when preparing the site for an evergreen shrub. The first is that roots must be encouraged to grow thick and rapidly and in doing so they will spread far out beyond the original hole—so, dig a wide, deep hole and prepare the soil for the shrub's future roots.

The other important planting rule is that the shrub's roots, when you buy it from a nursery, are growing naturally at the correct depth. It is very easy to see the soil mark on the stem and to plant it at exactly the same depth again is important.

The soil under and around the root ball should be rich, well-fertilized and capable of holding plenty of moisture. By digging a deep and wide hole, one may make space under and around the shrub for plenty of fertilizer and peat moss. The drainage also is automatically improved and may be made perfect by the addition of sand if needed.

If the soil feels hard and the spade cannot be thrust in it easily, when spading, then the soil is too tightly packed and is not right for the plant's roots.

If the soil for shrubs should get muddy or sticky to the spade when digging the hole, this is a definite indication that some coarse sand should be added. As a general rule, at least three or four buckets of peat moss and two pounds of a good organic fertilizer should be mixed thoroughly in the hole.

Cut Water Bills

The chief value of peat moss, when it is thoroughly mixed with the garden soil, is its ability to absorb and to store the soil moisture in that part of the soil where the plants' roots are growing. In so doing it retains the water in which is contained the valuable mineral plant foods that are so necessary to the growth, health and vitality of the garden plants. Peat moss or other humus has the effect of providing a reservoir of soil moisture which being always readily available, will prevent the plants from suffering from insufficient moisture during the time when most gardens would suffer from drought.

Planting the Evergreen

Be quite sure that the root ball is thoroughly wet before an attempt is made to plant any evergreen shrub. Some nurserymen recommend that the burlap be left on when planting. They do this for fear that, through carelessness, the soil of the root ball may be broken off or disturbed.

Provided the gardener uses ordinary, good care, the burlap should be removed, because when left on it forms an air pocket around the roots, which cannot bridge this gap with any degree of success.

Stand the shrub up in place and turn it around until it "faces" correctly. Although most shrubs are equally good all around, there is always one way that they look better than the others, so keep twisting it around until you are satisfied. Next, cut the string, and remove the nails from the burlap. While still in the hole, tip the shrub over on its side, to take the burlap off the root while you remove the burlap. Take great care that the soil around the roots is undisturbed while doing this. Check to see that the soil-line on the shrub is at exactly soil level. Then let the hose run gently into the hole, around the root-ball. While the water is running, fill in the space, shovelling a little soil at a time into the place where the hose is running.

Because of the soft soil in the mud puddle in which the shrub is set, it is likely to lean or even fall over, so if a tall shrub is being planted, use a stake or a couple of pieces of rope to hold it in place for the first month or two.

Every day for at least the first two weeks after planting, both the shrub and the soil should be thoroughly soaked.

Water regularly during the summer. Best time is early in the morning or on a cloudy day. Sprinkle the shrub as well as the soil.

Marjoram is one of the annual garden herbs still popular. Dried leaves are used for poultry dressing. Sweet basil is good for flavoring soups and stews. Both grow easily from seed.

Soil for seed boxes can be prepared by mixing your best top garden loam with an equal amount of sharp builder's sand. The soil is lumpy, screen out the lumps and use them in the bottom of the pot, or flat.

Hot-Bed Outside Window Easy to Build and Manage

Working Drawing for Hot-bed Outside Basement Window.

For the gardener who has a basement window with southern exposure, it is possible to build a practical hot-bed which is more easily watched, aired and watered than the standard type.

In front of the window make a shallow excavation about a foot deep. The sides must be figured carefully, so that a frame set in this excavation can be covered by window or hot-bed sash. As in the case of other hot-beds, a glass substitute may be used on the sash, if desired.

Build a frame to fit in the excavation. The sides must slant sharply from a point above the window, almost to the ground. Fit the sash on this frame, using hinges at the top so the sash may easily be raised for ventilation. Earth may be banked around the frame to keep out the cold, and the sides should be as tight as possible to keep out the wind.

The frame should be caulked where it joins the foundation to prevent drafts.

Heat is supplied to this bed by opening the basement window, and allowing the heated basement air to enter the bed. The window is left open at night, and may often be closed during the day, when the sun is shining on the bed. Hotbeds of this type have been tried and tested, and although they do not maintain temperatures as high as other kinds the heat will be more even, and the ventilation much better.

What to sow in a hot-bed? The tender vegetables that need a long season, such as tomatoes, peppers and eggplants, the harder cabbage and cauliflower, a few cucumbers or summer squash in pots sunk into the earth so they may be transplanted readily, all may be started here.

Most of the annual flowers will benefit from an early start here if you do not plan to put them in the cold frame, otherwise use the hot-bed only for the tender or slow ones.

The main things to watch are temperature and drainage. Ventilation is necessary on warm days, and for very short periods on cooler days. Sow seed thinly and water bed moderately when planting; thin out when needed.

Anti-Biotic Moss Guards Plant Babies from Disease

What penicillin does for humans, some anti-biotic substance does for seeds and seedling plants.

The dread "damping-off" disease, which so often destroys young plants, sometimes even before they reach the soil surface, may be prevented by sowing the seeds in a thin layer of spagnum moss placed on top of the soil in seed flat.

This precaution is so easy, and the danger of the disease so great whenever seeds are grown in the home, in hot-beds or in greenhouses, that the use of spagnum is wise in all such cases.

The material is inexpensive, being used by nurserymen for packing about the roots of seedlings, and may be obtained from florists and seedsmen. For use in the seed box it is rubbed on a sieve or screen.

A layer of shredded spagnum half an inch deep on top of soil is sufficient to protect the seedlings against damping-off. Seed should be sown in the moss, and lightly covered with the same material.

The moss should be thoroughly wet when the seed is sown, and the seed box then covered with a pane of glass. Germination will usually take place before additional watering is necessary, but the moss should not be allowed to dry out, and it must be watered on the surface, because sub-irrigation is not effective on this material.

Flats may also be entirely filled with spagnum moss, prepared in the same way. When this is done the flat should be drained freely, since water must be applied on the surface. The moss should be well soaked once in two or three days; overwatering does no harm.

Plants grown in spagnum develop heavy root systems, and the moss adheres to the roots much better than soil, which enables transplanting to be done with little or no loss of root area. The weight of the moss is much less than soil.

Long Harvest Vegetables Need Sowing Only Once

Vegetables which occupy the garden all summer, and yield continuously from the time they mature until frost ends the harvest, usually should be sown only once.

Hardy varieties should be put in the ground as soon as it has been prepared; and tender kinds should not be planted until the conditions are safe for them.

Here, as with the short-season crops, it is important to avoid sowing more than your family can eat, or put up for the winter. How can this be determined?

The table shows how much space each crop requires to produce one serving for a family of four. You must first decide how well you like each vegetable, and how often each week you will be glad to have it appear on the menu.

Broccoli, you will note, takes 2 feet of space in the row to raise a week's family serving. It should bear from July 15 until real freezing weather arrives in the fall. That means four full months, or thirteen weeks in normal seasons in the Chicago area. How often would you like broccoli to be served this summer on your table? Once a week? Then sow 26 feet of broccoli. Twice a week? Thirty-two feet will be required. And so with all the all-season vegetables.

Space estimates given in the table are based upon if you doubt the quality of yours. And remember that in garden planning, you need not make everything fit the estimate to an inch, but can give and take, accepting the tables as a general guide, to enable you to balance garden yield with your family needs and avoid having wasteful surpluses of some crops, followed by scarcity of others.

These Crops Occupy Garden Space All Summer

This table shows the space in the garden row required to produce one serving for a family of four.

| Salsify, 2 ft. |

Eight million tons of vegetables can easily be produced from 20,000,000 Freedom gardens, and this will be an invaluable addition to the nation's food supply.

Twelve Teams Competing In Playoffs for Men's Commercial Bowling Loop

TWELVE teams start two consecutive night of hectic five-pinning tonight and when it's all over tomorrow night one of them will lay claim to the Kelowna Builders Supply trophy and the championship of the Men's Commercial League.

Four finalists each from the three sections of the league were decided in the final week of scheduled play just concluded. When the thunder of battle is over, Mitchell's Men's Wear, on the basis of their season's performance, are favored to take the crown.

Finalists are:
Monday nighters—Bank Joes, Occidental Fruit, Simpson's Bulldozers, B. A. Oil.
Tuesday nighters—Collinson's, K. G. E. Shippers, Kelowna Motors, Mitchell's.
Friday nighters—Harvey's Cabinet Shop, New Vets, Knights of Pythias, Williams Shoe Store.
Rolloffs start at 7:30 p.m. tonight with six teams taking the alleys. Another six come on at 9 o'clock.

All Roll Six Games

Each team will roll six games—three Monday and three Tuesday—and the highest number of pins (with handicap) will decide the winner. Handicap for any team is 70 per cent of the difference between its full team average and that of the high average team.

Here is the line-up of teams for both nights, and their positions:
Monday, 7:30: Alley 6—Bank Joes, New Vets, Shippers; Alley 5—Mitchell's, Bank Joes, New Vets; Alley 4—Harvey's, Mitchell's, Bank Joes; Alley 3—Occidental, Harvey's, Mitchell's; Alley 2—Shippers, Occidental, Harvey's; Alley 1—New Vets, Shippers, Occidental.

Tuesday, 9:00: Alley 6—Bulldozers, Williams, Collinson's; Alley 5—Kelowna Motors, Bulldozers, Williams; Alley 4—K. of P., Kelowna Motors, Bulldozers; Alley 3—B.A. Oil, K. of P., Kelowna Motors; Alley 2—Collinson's, B.A. Oil, K. of P.; Alley 1—Williams, Collinson's, B.A. Oil.
Tuesday, 7:30: Alley 6—B.A. Oil, K. of P., Kelowna Motors; Alley 5—Collinson's, B.A. Oil, K. of P.; Alley 4—Williams, Collinson's, B.A. Oil; Alley 3—Bulldozers, Williams, Collinson's; Alley 2—Kelowna Motors, Bulldozers, Williams; Alley 1—K. of P., Kelowna Motors, Bulldozers.

Tuesday, 9:00: Alley 6—Occidental, Harvey's, Mitchell's; Alley 5—Shippers, Occidental, Harvey's; Alley 4—New Vets, Shippers, Occidental; Alley 3—Bank Joes, New Vets, Shippers; Alley 2—Mitchell's, Bank Joes, New Vets; Alley 1—Harvey's, Mitchell's, Bank Joes.

Handicaps Cut

Last year's champions, Simpson's Sash and Door, dropped out of the league before the half-way mark. With last year's system of handicapping, Simpson's S&D, with one of the lowest team averages in the loop, was able to keep up with the others.

Handicaps were slashed this year and Mitchell's, with a packed team, have been having things pretty well their own way—at least with the Tuesday night section. On paper, Mitchell's has a strangle hold on individual and team records set during the year by all three sections.

Mor-Eeze Ousted

In the Thursday night rolloff to break the Tuesday night knot, Mor-Eeze Shoe Store got the gate. Mor-Eeze, K.G.E. Shippers and Collinson's ended all-square. Tuesday night for the two berths in the playoffs, Collinson's rolled 3018, Shippers

HOLD LACROSSE MEETING WHEN JACKETS ARRIVE

Late arrival of the jackets for the seniors is holding up the annual general meeting of the Kelowna Lacrosse Club, a spokesman said last week.

The jackets, which should have been here some time ago, are due to come in within the next week or two, according to the latest word. Officials want to have the annual meeting and presentation of jackets at the same time.

In reply to a question, the spokesman, who declined to have his name mentioned, said Kelowna probably would consider importing a coach.

Vernon has one, and Kamloops is aiming at bringing in one from the coast.

CAGE SEASON COMES TO CLOSE

Any doubt about which was the best basketball team in boys' intermediate B class was dispelled at the Scout Hall Saturday night when Moose Lodge soundly whipped Legion Pioneers 43-23.

NEW BISHOP OF KOOTENAY IS ELECTED

Very Rev. F. P. Clark Will Succeed Most Rev. W. R. Adams

NELSON — Very Rev. Frederick Patrick Clark, M.A., Dean of Kootenay and Rector of St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral at Nelson, last week was elected Bishop of Kootenay at a meeting in Nelson of the Synod of the Diocese of Kootenay. He succeeds Most Rev. W. R. Adams, D.D., now Bishop of Yukon and Metropolitan of British Columbia.

The synod met under the chairmanship of Dean Clark, who in December, 1945, was installed as first Dean of Kootenay at the same time he was inducted as the rector of St. Saviour's.

He is also administrator of the Diocese, and as third Bishop of Kootenay, is probably the youngest bishop of the Church of England in Canada.

His election will be submitted to the House of Bishops of the Ecclesiastical Province of British Columbia for approval, and he will likely be consecrated by Archbishop Adams at Nelson, St. Mark's Day, April 25.

Live in Nelson

Dean Clark has signified that he wishes his home to be in Nelson. As this has met with approval, a precedent will be set for both previous bishops of Kootenay made Vernon their place of residence.

Dean Clark was the first of three bishops elected in the Kootenay to be carried on only two ballots. The new bishop is 39, the youngest of the seven candidates. He came to Nelson in 1945 from Vancouver, where he had been rector of Holy Trinity Church from 1941 to 1945.

He graduated in arts and theology from Lennoxville University and was ordained in Montreal in 1932. Other candidates were as follows:

Ven. D. S. Catpole, B.A., B.D., age 47, Canon of Kootenay, Archdeacon of Okanagan and Rector of Kelowna.

Rev. William Askey, L.Th., age 59, Rector of All Saints' Church, Winnipeg.

Rev. G. P. Gover, B.A., L.Th., age 46, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Vancouver.

Rev. Norman D. B. Larmonth, L.Th., age 54, rector, St. John's, Shaughnessy, Vancouver.

Very Rev. A. M. Trendell, D.D., age 48, Dean of Edmonton, Alta.

Very Rev. G. N. Luxton, age 46, Rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Ont.

After formal acceptance of the bishop-elect, plans for the consecration, in the hands of the Metropolitan, were outlined. As many bishops as possible are expected to attend the event in Nelson, first Kootenay city to be host to the consecration of a bishop of the diocese.

J. A. Brown, president for the past two years, occupied the chair, with J. A. Maddock, secretary pro tem, carrying on until the 1948 officers were elected.

J. W. Maddock was elected as president for the ensuing year, with Rex Hardwicke as vice-president. Directors appointed were as follows: W. Ingram, J. A. Brown, Richard Fukui, J. Paynter and O. Twinnam.

E. C. Paynter consented to take on the duties of secretary provided that a janitor be secured who would serve in that capacity whenever required. It was felt that it might be necessary to increase rental rates to pay for janitor's services.

When the Westbank Community Club was reorganized two years ago and re-named the Westbank Memorial Centre, it was decided that each of the several organizations in the district should appoint two members to the executive of the Memorial Centre to act with the above-named board. It is expected that these members will again be appointed by their respective organizations.

The Westbank Parks Board, J. A. Maddock, chairman, Mrs. D. Gelatly, secretary, R. L. Lynn, B. Woodsworth and O. Twinnam, is also affiliated with the Memorial Centre, and Mr. Maddock reported on the work of this committee.

Dressing-rooms and other facilities for bathers and picnickers have been provided. Mr. Maddock stated, adding that R. J. Lynn and A. Sheller had also donated fence posts for the park area, though these had not yet been put up. A stove of some sort is required for use this summer, and the hope was voiced that a generous individual might donate one to the park.

Plans for the proposed playground for youngsters on the lot adjoining the hall have not got farther than paper, owing to some indecision regarding the enlargement of the hall, which made the carrying out of these plans impracticable at present. When completed, these plans will make this vacant lot an attractive playground with shrubs and a grass plot in the foreground. Shrubs and trees for these grounds have been donated for use when required. Materials have also been promised.

Plans for their Easter sale of work and home-cooking were completed by members of St. George's Anglican Women's Auxiliary at their March meeting held early this month at the home of Mrs. W. Brown, when the president, Mrs. G. W. Stubbs, presided. A feature of this meeting was the shower of tinned and other foods for overseas, these to be forwarded to Stratford-on-Avon for distribution by a curate of the church there.

Mrs. G. D. Jukes, of Clinton, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Clarke, Westbank.

Parents Planning For Future Expenses

Bank of Montreal Co-operates in Savings Plan When Family Allowances were introduced in Canada, they were designed to raise the standard of living in Canada according to the needs of each family. Wise parents have used the money in many ways—for food, clothing and education. In some cases parents are depositing the cheques in a separate savings account for the children. "Parents who deposit their Family Allowance cheques at the B of M tell me the plan has two main advantages," said Walter Hooton, local manager of the Bank of Montreal. "As their children grow up, so their bank account grows too—ready money when the time comes to go about choosing a vocation." "Another advantage is that the children take a keen interest in watching their Savings Accounts grow. One youngster worked out his account with his dad and found he'd have over $200 in his Education Account by the time he reached sixteen. So he decided to save something of his own each month and make the account reach $1,000. "That type of planning," added Mr. Hooton, "makes for good citizenship."

A school is only as good ... as its teachers

"Today more is asked of the teacher than ever before. He is exhorted to fit our youth for the labor of life, to educate boys and girls for citizenship ... and above all to help build character."

—Leonard W. Brockington, K.C., LL.D.

School buildings are necessary, equipment is required, books are indispensable, school boards must make plans, superintendents and inspectors must give leadership but the teacher is absolutely essential in any school system.

The B.C. Teachers' Federation appeals to municipal councils, to school boards, and to the tax-paying public to keep these simple truths in mind.

Whether the source be provincial, municipal or a combination of both,

MORE MONEY MUST BE FOUND FOR EDUCATION

Present salary levels have not yet attracted a sufficient number of fully qualified teachers for our schools.

On the average, and over a period of years, the money that is paid to the teachers determines the quality of the schools.

An after-five was given on Wednesday by Dr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Loe, at "Five Willows," the lakeshore home of the former couple. MENTAL HEALTH TOPIC OF P.T.A. DISCUSSION

Mental health was stressed by Dr. A. N. Beattie at a well-attended gathering of parents and teachers in the High School auditorium Friday evening. Introducing the film, "A Feeling of Rejection," Dr. Beattie stated that almost half the hospital beds in Canada are occupied by patients with nervous and mental diseases, only a quarter of which have any hope of successful recovery. As trained psychiatrists are too busy helping these cases, preventive work is left to parents, teachers, nurses, family doctors and social workers.

How well-meaning parents through ignorance of their child's mental and emotional needs, brought her to the brink of mental disease was shown in the film. Those present greatly stirred, and a lively question and answer period ensued. Miss G. Oxley gave a short talk about the pamphlets on child training she had brought for distribution.

Mrs. M. Tucker, member of the P.T.A. child psychology study groups, was chairman.

A psychological film, "The Problem Child" will be shown on April.

KELOWNA ART GROUP REVIEWS ACTIVE YEAR

The first year of the Kelowna District Art Group under presidency of Rufus Williams, with headquarters at Cadder House, saw quite a bit accomplished. Miss Jessie Topham Brown, of Vernon, gave a ten-day course; Jean Travis and W. Percy Weston gave interesting courses, sponsored by the University Extension Department, which also sent out slides illustrating lecture courses. Four travelling exhibitions, sponsored by the Kelowna Artists were brought in. Excellent color films were shown at Cadder House, notably "West Wind" a life of Tom Thomson and "Alice Wyck" on Emily Carr's painting.

The group hopes to put an exhibition in the Kelowna Building at the Vernon-Okanagan Annual Industrial Exposition this year.

Contests were held for club letterhead; for painting depicting "Spring" to be kept in the club's permanent folio collection, and for posters to be used in the Union Library designating the different reading sections.

Now that Cadder House is no longer at the club's disposal, adequate space is needed for the weekly meetings. At present Wednesday night classes are held at the home of Mrs. S. M. Gore.

Fire Prevention Drive Will Be Undertaken By Rutland Board of Trade

RUTLAND—The executive of the Rutland Board of Trade held an evening meeting last Tuesday to consider a number of matters requiring considerable discussion.

Plans for the campaign to obtain support for the fire prevention program were discussed, and President Everett Reser was elected campaign manager. It was decided to send out a circular to everyone in the district, and to hold two public meetings, one in the Seventh Day Adventist hall on Tuesday, March 30, and the other in the Community Hall on Friday, April 2. At both of these meetings Fred Gore, of the Kelowna Fire Brigade, will be on hand and will speak in support of the campaign. The second meeting will also probably be the regular monthly Board meeting.

The matter of a petition to the B.M.I.D. to instal a domestic water system for part of the district was again discussed, and a committee appointed to circulate the petition. Reports from some of the committee who have completed their canvass indicate good support to the move. The petition, when completed, will be presented in time for the B.M.I.D. water users to consider it at their annual meeting in April.

NEW SENIOR BALL LEAGUE BEING FORMED

Loop Would Include Kamloops, Vernon, Princeton, Hedley, Summerland and Rutland

RUTLAND—A new senior baseball circuit is being formed this season, with entries from Kamloops, Vernon, Princeton, Hedley, Summerland and Rutland. The league is to start on Sunday, May 2, and promises to supply some interesting baseball, and will bring Kamloops and Vernon league teams into the central and southern Okanagan for the first time in many years. Last year the four last named teams played in the Okanagan-Similkameen League, and finished in the top two places in each circuit of that league. Summerland eventually playing off with Princeton in the finals.

The other teams in that league are reported to be planning to continue the league next year. The circuit only The Kelowna Cubs are reported to be planning an entry in this league again. Indications are that it will include the Cubs, Peachland, Osoyoos, Keremeos, Cayton and Copper Mountain. Windfall was at one time reported to be considering entering this league.

FILMS CANCELLED AT GLENMORE

GLENMORE—Owing to the fact that the regular showing of the National Film Board pictures in the hall would have been on Good Friday, a holiday, there will be no showing this time, but more films will be here five weeks later.

Miss Ament, who represents the Missions to Lepers work, will speak to the Sunday School pupils in the hall on Sunday morning. Parents and friends are welcome.

START BUYING MACHINERY FOR BOX FACTORY

RUTLAND—Work on the box factory at the Rutland Co-op mill is going ahead satisfactorily, and with the final approval of the Industrial Bank loan now in hand, Manager Fred Munson is proceeding with the purchase of the necessary machinery.

In addition to machines for box making, the output of the mill is to be stepped up by additional machines in the sawmill, and a second boiler is already on order. The newly acquired bulldozer is reported to be doing excellent work in the bush.

According to information received, the plans for the new high school and gymnasium for the Rutland district were well received at a meeting of the Board of Education officials, and tenders for construction will be called shortly. The building will be placed in the northwest part of the property, adjoining the manual arts building, leaving a large area for playing fields.

RUTLAND HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By ELEANOR FUGGER

The journalism class has again produced a school paper. Members have decided not to attempt another issue this year so as to have more time to spend on the annual.

Now that we have our projector, we too can enjoy films that correspond with our subjects. The grade XI and XII students, who are studying the works of William Shakespeare, enjoyed two scenes from the famous tragedy "Macbeth" and a scene from Julius Caesar, also a tragedy. Films on pasteurization, mining, physical education, and many others were shown.

Now that basketball and volleyball are over, softball is very rapidly becoming popular. With the weather just right for softball, everyone is outdoors practicing. The boys who won the tournament last year are hoping to keep the trophy at R.H.S.

On Friday night, March 12, seventy-five high school students, teachers and guests danced to the old-time music of The Prairie Ramblers. The Community Hall was decorated in crepe paper streamers, Easter bunnies and shamrocks. A lunch was served at 10.45, the party breaking up at midnight.

BENVOULIN

BENVOULIN—A social in the Benvoulin United Church was held Friday evening sponsored by the McMillan Circle. The evening of entertainment included The boys and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Vic Casorso was up from Oliver March 7 visiting at the home of his mother.

Fred Turner took part in the volleyball tournament held in Kelowna March 13 and his team won the championship.

Members of the district regretted to learn of the death of John Haynes in his 80th year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reid had Mrs. Reid's uncle, John Martin, of Vancouver, visiting them on March 9.

The monthly meeting of the McMillan Circle will take place on Tuesday, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Oliver McFarlane at 8 p.m.

RUTLAND W.I. HOLDS DINNER FOR TEACHERS

RUTLAND—The Rutland Women's Institute catered to about 70 teachers at a supper in the Community Hall on St. Patrick's Day. Tables were set with an Irish motif, with shamrock covered serviettes, and green and yellow napkins decorating the tables. The occasion was the regular monthly supper meeting of the Teachers' Federation of the Kelowna and district schools, held at Rutland on this particular occasion.

Emerson Varrell returned last week from California, where he has spent a two month's holiday.

Mrs. A. Burge is visiting friends in Vernon.

Mrs. R. E. White is visiting friends in the Sicamous district.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McEwen and infant son returned on Monday from a motor trip to the coast, going down via the Fraser Canyon and returning through Washington, via Seattle, Tacoma, and other points.

Sam Hunter returned Tuesday from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Greig, at Revelstoke.

Arthur L. Baldock is attending the annual meeting of the B.C. Co-operative Wholesale Union in Vancouver.

Rev. J. A. Petric, chairman of the local Red Cross committee, reports that Rutland canvassers have turned in about $900 toward the district's objective of $1,025. There are still several committee members to be recruited, and he is confident that the objective will be passed before the end of this week.

George Day returned on Friday from a visit to Victoria in connection with school affairs.

A. W. Gray returned on Friday from the coast, where he had interviews with Dean F. M. Clement, Hon. T. Kenney, Minister of Lands, and others on the subject of the Irrigation Districts' debt.

VETS' HOMES GET GARBAGE COLLECTION

GLENMORE—At the council meeting held on Thursday night, it was arranged to start the garbage collection from the Bankhead Heights district in April.

Three committees were appointed, councillors Mel Butler and Cam Lippett to be in charge of garbage collection and health; councillors Lippett and Mowbray to be in charge of roads and ditches, and Councillors Marshall and Butler to be in charge of domestic water. Councillor Marshall was appointed to act for Glenmore on any mosquito control board to be set up in the district. An ex-councillor W. J. Rankin, has agreed to carry on his former duties as Marshal.

School estimates were discussed, and in line with other municipalities, Glenmore has refused to accept the assessment made by the school board, in the ground that the amount to be raised from the various districts was not properly allocated.

In a discussion on the budget Councillor Lippett suggested that a survey of tax assessments on individual homes be made, pointing out that all the homes were not assessed in line with their relative value.

It was also decided that, since the community was growing so quickly, and many new businesses starting up, the time had come to enforce the payment of trade licences.

Rutland BCFGa Opposed To Granting Increased Wages in Packinghouses

RUTLAND—The regular monthly meeting of the Rutland Local of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association was held in the Community Hall last Saturday evening, with a fairly good attendance of members. The ordinary business of the meeting was set over to the end of the agenda by chairman Archie Weighton to give visiting speakers from Tree Fruits Ltd., an opportunity to address the meeting.

A.K. Loyd, general manager, introduced the subject of "Pooling," which was of great interest to the growers, particularly so to the new-comers, who are unfamiliar with the marketing set-up. He was followed by Wm. Darroch and George Brown, of the Tree Fruits staff who, by means of charts and diagrams explained the manner in which the prices are set. Many questions were asked and members present felt well repaid for attending. On the subject of prices, the speakers indicated that while the crop had, in some cases sold for higher prices than in the previous season, the net return to the grower would be slightly less than the year before due to increased packing costs. A greater spread between Extra Fancy and Cee Grade prices would also result in a further reduced return to those growers with a large proportion of Cee Grade. This was a policy approved by the B.C.F.G.A. convention, and adopted to encourage the growing of better quality fruit and discourage the mass production of low grade fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Morash and their two children, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Purdy.

Mrs. S. Stone, of Vancouver, is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stone.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

Everyone wants to be popular. But many of us make the mistake of thinking that popularity depends on having an attractive smile, an enthusiastic manner, and the ability to be a good mixer.

While these things help, not one of them is as important as being dependable—particularly in doing what you say you will do.

When people know that they can depend on you, it makes them feel secure. They think of you as a real friend to whom they can turn for help. So naturally they will like you better.

In your job, especially, dependability pays. So, among all the people you deal with in your work, try to build a reputation for dependability. Accept more responsibilities.

At home, too, you can cultivate dependability in matters that contribute to the family's welfare.

As you become known as a person whose word is as good as his bond you will find many people waiting to give you a warmer welcome!

Millions of Canadians know that they can depend confidently on their contracts with life insurance companies—contracts which provide financial protection in emergencies and retirement advances for comfortable old age.

Franklin D. Roosevelt

SAID: "The advantages of life insurance manifested every day in every community cannot be discounted. This form of insurance is a part of our modern life."

Organization Will Hold Another Card Party to Raise Funds on March 24

WINFIELD—The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall on Wednesday, March 10, with 26 members present. The president, Mrs. G. Elliot was in the chair. Following the reading of the minutes, several forms of correspondence were read and dealt with. A number of letters from members of the Alameda Institute in England, which had been adopted last year, were also read and distributed. Several members volunteered to adopt a pen pal and continue the inter exchange of correspondence.

Ship Parcel

A parcel, consisting of dried fruits was sent as this month's contribution. Mrs. Phillips, in dealing with the work of the Canadian Association of Consumers, mentioned that since this organization functioned through the Institute, any member wishing to join could do so at the next meeting. Mrs. Delmer Reiswig was chosen to attend the Biennial Convention at Rutland on April 29. Mrs. Reiswig was further requested to take the three weeks' handicraft course which will be offered at the University in May; in case Mrs. A. Beck could not attend.

Card Party

It was moved that $10 be sent to the Junior League of the Solariun in aid of "The March of Dimes Campaign." Furthermore, it was decided that another card party be held in the hall on Wednesday, March 24. Refreshments were later served by the Citizenship Committee.

ROLLER HOCKEY GAMES PROVIDE KEEN INTEREST

Tuesday night's roller hockey meet between Kodiaks and a newly formed Pro-Rece team appears to be a natural. Up to now, Kodiaks have been having their own way, but Tuesday night last, the Pro-Receers bested another newcomer team, the Rockets, 2-1, and on paper seem ready for any kind of a battle with the Kodiaks.

In two preliminary games Tuesday, the Cougar girls defeated the Lions girls 2-1, and the Whiz Kids (in 15 and under class) shut out the Pee Wees 3-0.

A Kelowna youth was fined $10 in juvenile court March 8 for carrying a loaded firearm without a licence.

not have to levy a sales tax to balance the budget. By putting on a capital gains tax, cutting down administrative expenses, and returning to former Premier John Hart's policy of setting aside only essential sinking funds, the government could have overcome the gap between expenditure and revenues, he said. The local MLA declared the sales tax will drive all business to mail order houses, and added Alberta once had a sales tax, but that it was withdrawn.

Attacking the government over salaries paid the Labor Relations Board, he said it is an instance of steadily expanding administrative costs of the government. "I'll only be a part-time board anyway, when the new act goes functioning. But the members get $5,000 each," he charged. Huge outlays for a health insurance commission that never produced anything was another case. "There certainly isn't the economy in this government that there used to be when the coalition was first formed," he continued. He warned the administration not to be too proud of its recent election victories. It should realize that the chief reason for the return of Coalitionists is because of a countrywide swing against the C.C.F. He said the C.C.F. can defeat this government. I say they never can, but sometimes the people defeat a government if they are fed up."

TALK ON INDIA GIVEN CENTRE W.I.

OKANAGAN CENTRE—The regular monthly meeting of the Okanagan Centre Women's Institute was held on March 11 at the Community Hall.

The special feature of the meeting was a talk on India, more specifically the workings of the civil service in the Punjab, by R. H. Broadbent, who was in that service for 14 years.

The speaker is a newcomer to the Centre having bought an orchard plot of the Rainbow Ranch Ltd.

Another pleasant feature was the presentation of a traveling clock and rug to Mrs. N. Carter. The institute president, Mrs. H. Gleed, on behalf of Mrs. Carter's many friends, wished her a pleasant voyage and a safe return.

Mrs. Carter has for a good many years been an active institute member and good neighbor to everyone in the village and on this, her first visit to her old home in England, a great many more than are institute members joined in the presentation.

Mrs. Van Akeren read the report of the committee in charge of the rural housing contest.

Donations in money were voted to the Queen Alexandra Solarium and to the Salvation Army.

Delegates to both the South Okanagan district rally, and the provincial biennial conference were elected. Mrs. Crandall, the former and Mrs. P. W. Pixton to the latter.

Ten hostesses were Mrs. Carter, Mrs. G. Reeve and Miss MacLennan. Miss Patricia Baker, an Easter bride, was honored by the Centre Badminton Club recently when she was literally showered with tea-cloths; while on Tuesday evening some two score of her friends gathered at the Van Akeren home surprising her with many beautiful and varied gifts.
